

TRINITY NEWS

Maybe the dark is where we learn to see. The blind man in today's gospel encountered Jesus healing and could see, not just the colours of creation, but also the beyond to the invisible. Following Jesus is all about learning to see. If we are going to learn to participate in the mission of God, we need to learn how to see things nobody else can see, like the ways that God is already at work in the world. In order to see the kingdom of God, we retrain our eyes. An essential part of the training comes in the wilderness. It is in the wilderness that our senses are heightened because this is where our lives can be at risk. Lent is the journey of new sight. I often find it tempting to skip the dark places with a desire to jump straight into the light of the resurrection. But I'm not convinced it works that way.

Thursday. Midweek Eucharist, 10:00a.m.,
Chapel.

ANNOUNCEMENT: ECHT will soon review proposals to convert part of ECHT's electrical consumption to the use of solar energy. Anyone wishing to participate in this review are invited to inform Bill Staub or Claire Agustin.

Unity in Diversity: The Bible Study group has been meeting in the Parish Hall for 10 years. Led by Christine the group studies the written word to experience living word.

Rose will retire from her 23 years of work and care for the many Rectors and families and wider church family at the end of March. Rose's contribution to the mission of the Church over this time has been significant and very much appreciated. Rose would prefer not to have a farewell party, however extends her love to all. Although retiring back in her home town of Cebu to spend time with family, the door for visiting back here at Holy Trinity will always be open.

From all the congregation past and present we wish Rose a healthy and happy retirement after many years of faithful and Godly service. God's Blessings be with Rose, and a big Thank You!
