

TRINITY NEWS

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

Richie and Johnny, our faithful Security Guards often help Deacon Mary and myself cross the chaotic traffic of McKinley Road. Placing themselves at risk for our sake and safety, our listening and trust turns away from the many distracting and confusing sounds to focus only on their words and guiding hand movements. In a world hungry to compete for our attention, the Gospel according to John speaks about the significance of listening to Christ. Jesus came to give us life in abundance, to be the voice of love in a world where we can easily turn our eyes and ears away from the one who has our best interests at heart. When we stop listening to one another, we also stop listening to Christ. Jesus the Good Shepherd is the voice of the one who cares for us, who gives us everything that is his so that we may live.

Thanks be to God.
Fr. Peter
