

The first French Service was an encouraging event in the life of the Church of the Holy Trinity. Attendance was 25 people who were able to enjoy worship, scripture and an inspiring message from Fr. Bert in a language dear to them.

Fr. Bert did a superb job of leading and I could sense the enthusiasm of those who attended. I found the acapella singing very spirited!

Thank you to Vestry and the congregation for the encouragement and prayers you have offered. By God's grace I suspect this will be a growing ministry which fits well into the Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinity mission and purpose.

Thank you to Fr. Bert for your passion and work in this, and Claire, Maricel, Agosto and the boys for your work in this too. Please keep this ministry in your prayers as we seek to God's will in this diverse and exciting part of the world.

Love and prayers,
Fr Peter
