

TRINITY NEWS

Hiking was something I enjoyed in my earlier years. I would usually pick a mountain to climb. In the picture is the “Cross Cut Saw” mountain in Victoria’s High Country where I often would climb, sometimes with my father, sometimes alone. There is something about achieving the climb to the top, stretch out your arms, and look at everything beneath you. Mountains have a religious symbolism for biblical cultures since they were thought to be “closer to God” who was believed to dwell in the heavens. As a result, God often reveals himself on the mountaintop. Jesus is accompanied by Moses and Elijah, who themselves encountered God on the mountaintop in the Old Testament. Now they encounter God through Jesus who is seen as the fulfilment of the Law in Moses and the Prophets in Elijah. Peter, James and John discovered, as do all who get the top. As good as it is, if you want to keep moving, there is only one way from there to go.

Your prayers are asked for:

World: We give thanks to God for the oceans of the world and all living creatures that live in the water. Help us to be wise stewards of the gifts before us.

Church: We give thanks for the youth of the Church of the Holy Trinity, for their faith and walk in life and all they have to offer. We pray for the Children's Ministry beginning in September and all those who teach, and for others who may also be called to help in this ministry.

Community: We pray to God to guide us in all we do for our neighbors, that we love one another as you love us. Help us to see our neighbors as you do dear Lord.
