

TRINITY NEWS

Last week we heard Jesus say to Simon his name will be Peter and he will be part of foundational growth for the Kingdom of God. In the account today Peter is called Satan and a stumbling block. How quickly things can change! Jesus taught Peter that to be foundational in God's Kingdom, he needed to change his pattern of thinking to something bigger than himself, which often didn't make sense. The awaiting cross in Jerusalem was the way for this to begin. When we try to hold life so tightly to preserve it, we will lose the very life we are trying to keep. To trust the upside down world of Christ who seemingly was about to toss his life away, was going to be a lesson for Peter to build upon. Peter too was on his way to an upside down cross, he just didn't know it yet.
