

TRINITY NEWS

Imagine a modern day commercial trying to convince you to enjoy the sufferings of rejection, deny yourself, and toss your life into a cross. This doesn't sound like a good sales pitch, and I suspect wouldn't get many 'likes' on Facebook. Though Gospel according to Mark thought it good enough to keep. Maybe the disciples' hunger for the soul-food of Jesus was enough to know it was good, even if it went against many of the teachings of time. Christ was the sacrificial lamb, once for all.

I sometimes wonder how much sacrifice is still needed. Maybe the most important thing as the Gospel proclaims is to give up is our false selves.

Thank you to all who helped and supplied food for last Sunday's potluck lunch during our visit from Bp. Jones. Both services reflected good worship and celebration.

Blessings
Fr. Peter
