PENTECOST 22. OCTOBER 21, 2018

Thank you to all who made the Indigenous Peoples Sunday such a wonderful celebration reflecting the Kingdom of God of unity in diversity.

We give thanks for the life of Mrs. Alice GoHoc who passed away last Sat 13th Oct. A faithful and generous natured member of the faith family of the early service. May Alice rest in peace with Christ and all the saints. Please keep John and all the family in your prayers.

Love and prayers.
Fr. Peter

Hello to everyone,

Most of us have experienced grief in our lives and if we haven't yet we certainly will. The many kilometers that separate me from the community of Holy Trinity has not diminished my sadness at the passing of our gentle and humble Alice GoHoc.

C.S Lewis writes on grief.

"I feel mildly drunk, or concussed. There is a sort of invisible blanket between the world and me. I find it hard to take in what anyone says. Or perhaps, hard to want to take it in. It is so uninteresting. Yet I want the others to be about me. I dread the moments when the house is empty. If only they would talk to one another and not to me."

My prayer for all of us as we navigate grief.

May we have someone around us, who doesn't expect us to speak.
May the invisible blanket be lifted and warm us rather than separate us.

Looking forward to seeing everyone soon!

With love
Deacon Mary
