PENTECOST 23. OCTOBER 28, 2018

Bartimaeus couldn't see with his eyes, but he could see with his soul. Calling out to Jesus from the darkness of his world proved to be life changing. Although I have always had the blessing of sight, I can recall times when I have lost my vision of the Christ and found myself also crying out "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me". This is one of the deepest prayers we can utter. We see again God's merciful nature, and go and live likewise.

Blessings
Fr Peter

NOTICES:

Fr. Peter will be on annual leave for his eldest son Andrew's wedding in Australia. He will be away from Oct 29 and return on Nov 26 for the beginning of Advent. We give thanks for the ministry of Fr. Bert who will help with keeping the Sundays and day to day life of ECHT ticking over. Continue usual contact with Claire and Maricel who can then help, allocate and connect with Fr. Bert. Deacon Mary and Elijah shall return mid December.

Remembrance Day falls on Sunday Nov. 11 this year, and is a Centenary Celebration. The 9:30 a.m. Service will be a special service as usual with some extra emphasis on this occasion of remembering and giving thanks for the sacrifices men and women have made for the purpose of peace.

ECP National Cathedral, Nov 25th 9.00 a.m.

Eucharist Celebration for 1st year Theological Students. Followed by St. Andrew's Theological Seminary entertainment and fellowship. Tickets to raise funds for the Summer Field Education.
