Luke 4: 21-32

V:22 All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his lips. Then five verses later...V: 28 All the people in the synagogue were furious when they heard this. ²⁹They got up, drove him out of the town, and took him to the brow of the hill on which the town was built, in order to throw him off the cliff.

What happened in those five verses that turned amazement into anger and death threats?

Seems like Jesus anticipated what questions were coming to him, and gave an answer they didn't want to hear. Maybe it's a human condition to quickly change from our moods and thoughts when we don't hear what we want. Even or especially if it happens to be the truth of Christ.
