

Remembrance Sunday 8th November 2020

“Lest We Forget”

We extend a warm invitation and welcome to everyone to join our Remembrance Sunday Service at 9:30am on Sunday 8th November.

This Service is held each year on the Sunday closest to 11th November (Armistice Day).

It is to remember with thanksgiving and deep gratitude, those who made the supreme sacrifice in times of war and in the service of others, so that we and future generations may live in peace.

The address during the Service will be given by Her Majesty’s Ambassador, Daniel Pruce.

In view of the current quarantine restrictions, the Service will only be accessible on YouTube and Facebook and the links for joining the Service will be shown here as soon as it is available.
